Rhett was born July 10, 1989 in Bridgeton, New Jersey where she currently resides. She is a graduate of Cumberland Regional High School. As a child, Kelvonne discovered that writing was an easy way to express her thoughts and her feelings and that it was something she found great joy in doing. She eventually became totally engrossed in different forms of writing and developed a passion for her gift. A Born-again Christian, she came to the realization that God wanted her to use her gift for more than an expression of herself or her feelings. He wanted her to give it totally back to Him to be used for the Kingdom and for His Glory. Being obedient, she began writing to encourage and empower women of all ages to be all God has created them to be. Kelvonne is a true literary gift who is a real help to the Body of Christ. She is a proud member of In His Image Ministries in Bridgeton, New Jersey, where she serves under the pastoring and mentorship of Senior Pastor, Bishop Dennis Thompson. In His Image Ministries has been her home church since 2011. One of her great sources of pride is that after years of talking about writing a poetry book, she has finally gone through with it. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
